THE NEW LIFE PASTOR OF THE DAY RETURNS FOR '17!

Sunday, October 8th is National Clergy Appreciation Day. In recognition of this special day, New Life 94.5 is offering an affordable way for your church congregation to honor your pastor as the "New Life 94.5 Pastor of the Day!"

Starting Labor Day, we'll be airing daily, prerecorded messages honoring a different pastor each day. Then, on Friday October 6th, a winner will be drawn from all nominated pastors for a special prize pack that includes a Sunday buffet lunch at Eagle's Nest Restaurant in South Charleston, a round of golf at Little Creek Golf Course plus a pair of tickets to a WVU and Marshall home football game this fall.

For information on cost and how to nominate your pastor, visit our website www.newlife945.com.

JOHN CRIST TO HEADLINE 24TH ANNUAL DENT DINNER

Kanawha Pastoral Counseling Center presents the 24th Annual Dent Dinner, Tuesday October 17th at Embassy Suites in Charleston. This year's headliner will be nationally known comedian John Crist. The Dent Dinner serves at the only fundraising event for KPCC, which provides over $180,000 in uncompensated services annually. Support of this event allows KPCC to offset these costs and provide counseling to those who cannot afford it, plus the ability to implement more Beyond Addiction support groups for struggling families across the state. To purchase your tickets, visit kpcc.com today!

Coming in September!

Congratulations to our honorees!

Robert's Ramblings

By Robert Fulton
Program Director
Mid days 10am-3pm

Last month's eclipse was hard to miss. People were making mad dashes to try and find glasses at the last second. I was darting out of the radio station between talking on the air, to snag a look when I could. It even got the news to talk about something that wasn't "doom and gloom" for an hour or two. Did you get a chance to see it? This verse kept coming back to me as I took it in:

"Lift up your eyes and look to the Heavens. Who created all these? He who brings out the starry host one by one, and calls forth each of them by name. Because of His great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing." - Isaiah 40:26

Even though a moment like watching the Sun and Moon in their cosmic choreography can make you feel small (It did for me!), it's also a great reminder that the same God who is keeping all of that perfectly in motion is the one who knows you. He knows your name, the number of hairs on your head, and what kind of day you're having. And He loves you! Never forget that You are loved fiercely with that same power and strength!

COOKIN' WITH COACH - Chris "Coach" Akers

After months of suffering, us football fans can finally breathe a sigh of relief as college and high school football have returned! If you're like me, it's more than just the action on the field...it's the food! My football weekends normally consist of multiple snackings instead of one big sit-down feast. This way, you are always one step ahead of the hunger bug. One snack that scores a touchdown each time I make it is my Roasted Jalapeno Poppers!

Ingredients:

- 12 large jalapeno peppers
- 2 ounces feta cheese
- 4 ounces cream cheese, at room temperature
- 4 ounces shredded smoked pepper Jack cheese, or other hot pepper cheese, or extra-sharp Cheddar
- A small handful fresh cilantro, finely chopped
- 2 tablespoons grated onion

Directions:

Preheat the oven to 425 degrees F. Cut 1/3 of each pepper off lengthwise and scoop out the seeds. Place on a baking sheet. If peppers do not sit flat on the baking sheet, slice a thin piece off the bottom of the pepper so it will not roll around.

Mash the feta, cream cheese, shredded cheese, cilantro, and onion together and stuff the peppers with the mixture. Roast for 15 to 18 minutes, or until the peppers are tender and the cheese is brown at the edges and bubbly. Enjoy!
