The View From The Back Pew

By Chris "Coach" Akers

Saturdays 4-8 PM

Two weeks ago was one for the ages, at least in seemed so at the time. I became ill, having pneumonia, bronchitis and a sinus infection all at once. To make things worse, we received almost eight inches of heavy, wet snow at our house. Guess what? The weight of the snow was too much for one of the trees in our neighborhood, snapping it in two and on top of our power lines. So at 6am, there I sat: sick, cold and in the dark.

It was at that point that I prayed for God to get us out of that predicament. It was an inconvenience that, quite frankly, I didn't feel like dealing with.

Inconvenient. I started thinking about that. Isn't it sad that we often don't seek God or even talk to Him unless there's a trial we are facing. Instead of thanking Him daily for all of our blessings, we often take Him for granted and only turn to Him in times of trouble.

Jesus Christ paid the ultimate price for our sins. The very least we can do is praise Him daily, in good times and bad.

COACH'S KITCHEN - Chris "Coach" Akers

Welcome to Spring! The snow has melted (for today anyway) and the grass is starting to green up. Get those lawnmowers ready!

With it being Easter, I want to share a relatively easy snack for the kids guaranteed to put a smile on their faces: Nutter Butter chicks!

Ingredients:

- ◆ 2 cups white chocolate chips
- ◆ Yellow food coloring
- ◆ 12 Nutter Butters
- ◆ 6 orange mini M&Ms, halved
- ◆ 24 Yellow Reese's Pieces
- ◆ 24 Orange Reese's Pieces

Line a baking sheet with wax or parchment paper. In a medium bowl, combine white chocolate chips and 4 to 5 drops of yellow food coloring. Microwave on 50% power in 30 second intervals until the chocolate has melted. Stir until smooth. Toss each Nutter Butter in the yellow chocolate mixture until fully coated. Transfer to the baking sheet. Decorate each cookie with mini chocolate chip eyes, a mini M&M beak, yellow Reese's wings and orange Reese's feet. Refrigerate 10 minutes or until chocolate is firm then serve.
