The View From The Back Pew

By Chris "Coach" Akers

Saturdays 4-8 PM

I am often asked, almost every week, why I go by the nickname of "Coach." Well as hard as it is to believe, I did in fact coach back in my younger days. There was nothing more gratifying than to create a game plan and see it executed to perfection. In dealing with kids, "perfection" was rare. But when it did work, look out!

But for now I have retired my whistle. Do I miss coaching? Yes indeed. But growing older has taught me that there is a much more important game that each and every one of us is participating in. It's the game of life.

For you see, Jesus Christ is my coach. And he has laid out the ultimate game plan. It's called the Bible. Just like my former players, I very rarely execute it perfectly. I don't know of too many who do. But by His grace, I've yet to foul out. I'm so thankful I am on His team.

One day, this game will come to an end. Have you studied the game plan? If you haven't, I pray that you will. Don't go into the overtime of eternity without Him.

Robert's Ramblings

By Robert Fulton

Program Director

Mid days 10am-3pm

A month removed from Easter, aren't you glad we can still proclaim that "He is risen!" Jesus loves you so much He went to the cross in our place, and died for our sins. But the most amazing part is that the story does not end there! In just three days came those three words: He is risen! And with them came so much hope - hope that is yours and mine as much as it was for His first disciples and followers. Take a look:

"But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive." - 1 Corinthians 15:20-22

The hope of Christ is not only life after death (though it is certainly for that too!), but it is new life today! Sin has been in the world since Genesis. But Christ came, lived, died, and was resurrected so that you can have new life today! Hold on to that hope not just at Easter, but today and every day!
