SANTA'S REST STOP AT REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH!

The Christmas countdown has started! And before you know it, it will be Christmas Day! We know what you're asking yourself...how and when and I going to go shopping with a car full of kids?! Well we have you covered!

New Life 94.5 has teamed up with Redeemer Lutheran Church and Dutch Miller Subaru to present Santa's Rest Stop on Friday evening December 7th from 6pm-9pm at the church in Charleston!

Drop the kids off for a safe, fun-filled evening of holiday games, crafts, snacks and fellowship while you hit the shopping trail in peace. Best of all, it's free!! Just be sure to pick them back up by 9pm! For more information and to preregister your children, visit www.newlife945.com!

HELP. HOPE. HOME. IN THE BODY OF CHRIST.

SALVATION ARMY ANGEL TREE CONTINUES THRU DEC. 15TH

There is nothing more precious than a child's smile and laughter on Christmas morning. Sadly, not every child in our area gets to experience the joy or gifts under the tree or a stocking from Santa.

New Life 94.5 has once again teamed with Poca Valley Bank to sponsor this year's Salvation Army Angel Tree program. Starting November 9th, stop by the 2nd level of the Charleston Town Center near Macy's during regular mall business hours and adopt your angel today!

The View From The Back Pew

By Chris "Coach" Akers

Saturdays 4-8PM

Now that Thanksgiving has come and gone, we are smack dab in the middle of the Christmas season. In a blink of an eye, we'll be ringing in another year. Where did 2018 go?

This time of year is always a time of reflection for me. Usually, I am so busy that I never really have the time to fully digest all of the concerts, events and happenings of the year. As I do reflect, there is one memory that will forever be burnt into my memory.

Last month, we did a 12-hour food drive with The Salvation Army at their Charleston thrift store. The response was great and, because of the generosity of our listeners, we were able to help sustain the food pantry during this busy time of year.

Right after the noon lunch hour, a gentleman approached our remote broadcast location with two arm loads of groceries. He must have had 5 or 6 bags full of canned food items. He dropped them off and was on his way.

About five minutes later, he returned and approached me. Weeping, he began to tell me how The Salvation Army helped sustain his family during the holidays and how, without their help, his kids would not have had any kind of enjoyable Christmas. But the story doesn't end there.

He went on to tell me that he was homeless, living in a shelter. But when he heard our call to action on the radio, he felt led to support the very cause that had helped him so many times in the past. Wow! Here's a man that, to be quite honest, was one that we were trying to raise food to help feed. His next meal was anything but guaranteed. But he knew he had to help.

That hit me like a ton of bricks. I am sharing this story today in the hopes it will have a similar effect on you this holiday season. I would venture to guess none of us are millionaires but we are all indeed blessed. Each morning our feet hit the floor is a blessing from God.

This December, I want to encourage you to pay it forward. Make a donation to your local food pantry. Put some money in the red kettles. Adopt an angel from the Angel Tree. Or reach out to someone in need and pray with them. Jesus loved us enough to die for our sins. The least we can do is love His children and our brothers and sisters by lending a helping hand. You will never know when you may need that same hand of generosity.

Merry Christmas to all of you and I hope you have a truly blessed holiday season!
