THE RAMBLE

By Robert Fulton

Mon – Fri 10am-3pm

Sat – Sun 12pm-4pm

Are you fighting a battle? Battles can come in many forms, from big obstacles to seemingly small struggles day in and day out. Whether you're in a battle now, or you just want to be ready, take a quick look at these examples so you can prepare.

First - get the sin "out of the camp." In Joshua 6 and 7, Israel defeats Jericho, is given specific instructions about what to do after that, and because just one person didn't listen, they were defeated in their very next battle. Only when they got rid of the sin did victory come. So if there's a sin in your life, get rid of it.

Second - fix your eyes on God. In 2 Chronicles 20, King Jehoshaphat and the Israelites are facing literally thousands of enemy soldiers from other nations, and they are frightened. The King prays a prayer that ends with "We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you." God honored their faith in Him, and responded by telling them the battle was His, not theirs, and He would fight for them. So in your battle, place your trust in God, and keep your eyes on Him.

Finally, Check your armor, and pray. In Ephesians 6:10-18, we get an awesome picture of what we need to cover ourselves with. The armor of God has nothing covering the back - His intention is not for us to run, but to face our battles in His strength. And to pray - for ourselves, and for each other - prayer is the key. When you're solid in your prayer life, you'll find strength.

So in your battles, whatever they are, ask yourself: Is there sin? Where's my focus? and How's my armor? Find peace in prayer, and strength for all of life's battles.
